

In 2018 the Hutchins City Council approved a 6-million-dollar bond expenditure to construct a new public safety building for Police and Fire. Construction was completed in December of 2021 and the Police department moved into the new facility in January of 2022. The Hutchins Police Department is made up of twenty (22) sworn Officers and nine (9) civilian personnel in our Communications, Records, Code Compliance, and Animal Services divisions. The Hutchins Police Department has an annual operating budget of 3.6 million dollars.
